Baladin Isaac
5% ABV Italian Craft Beer
$13.9 330mL bottle

Italy it typically known for it's pale, inoffensive lagers. However, scratch that surface and there's interesting things to be found. Like brewer Matterino 'Teo' Musso's Piozzo-based Baladin in the northwest of Italy, halfway between Turin and Nice.

Named for his son, the Isaac is a self-described "blanche with mediterranean aromas". Meaning a Belgian-style wheat beer with the traditional orange peel and coriander additions; light, grassy hoppiness; and a slight, citrusy sourness that distinguishes it from its more northern cousins.
